

NJORD Latvia: Senior associate Anna Kosinska ranked as a Rising Star in the 2020 edition of The Legal 500

Congratulations to our senior associate Anna Kosinska for being ranked Rising Star in Dispute Resolution of 2020 edition of The Legal 500. According to Legal 500, Anna is well versed in litigation, with experience in the transport, employment, telecoms and IP sectors.

With over 15 years of litigation experience across various sectors, Anna has a strong sense of responsibility, ability to work with large volumes of information and careful approach to work, and ability to work both individually and in a team. She reviews each case in depth and always tries to find the best solution for the particular client.

Passion for her work, attention to details, analytical thinking, research ability, decision-making and problem-solving skills, preciseness and initiative, professional judgement, application of theory to practice, effective communication and ability to work in a dynamic and fast-paced environment are the key factors of her successful professional performance.

Congratulations, Anna, we are proud and honored to have you in our team!

NJORD Latvia has a strong litigation practice covering various industries, and in particular IP, shipping, transport and insurance. We currently offer full litigation service covering civil, administrative and criminal law: in particular, cases relating to proceeds from crime, money laundering and white-collar crimes. We are frequently recommended and hired exclusively as litigation specialists
