

Liisi Jürigen is appointed new partner of NJORD Estonia

NJORD law firm is pleased to announce that Liisi Jürigen, attorney-at-law and head of NJORD's IT law practice group, is a new partner of NJORD Estonia.

"We are very happy to appoint Liisi Jürigen as a partner of NJORD Estonia. Her experience and knowledge have become invaluable assets to the firm and its clients", said managing partner Veikko Toomere.

Liisi Jürigen is an attorney-at-law with clients active within ICT, Technology Start-Up and e-Commerce sectors. She assists clients regarding IT contracts, data protection, e-commerce, electronic signatures (incl. legal issues arising from authentication and e-ID), consumer protection, and product development. Her knowledge and expertise are valuable assets in all development phases of a company, starting from business model development to drafting contracts and negotiations.
