PROFILE

Attorney and partner Lars Berg Dueholm specializes in civil litigation, with a particular focus on fraud cases.

When handling litigation, Lars is in his element, especially when it comes to uncovering complex structures and connections. He has extensive experience with lawsuits and bankruptcy estates involving fraudulent or similar circumstances. His ability to analyse transactions and legal structures is often crucial in safeguarding the rights of clients and creditors.

Lars has the right of audience before the High Court and has conducted several significant cases, particularly concerning clawback claims and damages. Over the years, he has handled the administration of several high-profile bankruptcy estates in both the real estate sector and manufacturing industries. He has also served as a restructuring consultant, trustee, or advisor in numerous cases where distressed businesses across various industries required assistance.

In this capacity, Lars Berg Dueholm has achieved certification as an Insolvency Attorney.
